It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardul, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give

The Woman's Tonic a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good." Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardul for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 13

LESSON TEXT-Matt. Mark.

THE TEN VIRGINS.

A parable is "an earthly story with a heavenly meaning." An analogy is 'a likeness." This story is a parable. It is to illustrate the vigilant, expectant attitude of faith, Heb. 6:28; H Tim. 4:8. Leaving the temple, Jesus drew the disciples' attention to its buildings and predicted its destruc- 8-13-3t tion. Proceeding to the Mount of Olives, his disciples ask him, "Tell us, when shall those things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and the second part and is one of three its Board of Directors, so to do, I, parables concerning the responsibility of the church. Jesus is the bride. C. H. Among hours prescribed by law, the followwise and the foolish, though both were right intentioned. The lamps symbolize Christian profession, Luke Miss., to-wit: 12:35; II Tim. 3:5, and the oil that which is essential to give us power whereby we maintain our profession, believed to be good, but only such Acts 10:38; 1 John 2:20:27. The foolish virgins were superficial and had not enough to maintain their professions. The wise virgins had enough oil; so also may the believer have the August, 1914. abiding spirit of Christ's presence wherein to maintain his Christian profession. Waiting they It no ted (slumbered) and others evidently lay down (slept). The wise virgins could afford to rest as they had all things ready. If they had been awake, however, they might have seen and rendered aid to those who were in the sorry plight of not being ready. The tarrying was a test of the faith and ence of both the wise and the foolish as both awaited the "fulness of time" when he should appear.

The Great Question. II. Behold the bridegroom cometh" vv. 6-13. All are awakened by this midnight cry. The hour was one when he was least expected, and the church of today needs to be awakened to a realizing sense of this truth. Both the wise and the foolish have to meet him, but the wise were the only KEEP COOL ones whose lights could shine and show the way into the banqueting room. They all outwardly appear alike even to the very point of separation. The church of God individually and collectively, has yet to sense the danger to it and to others if its right for any reason be not continuous. This ery was a call to "meet him" and we all need to ask ourselves, "are we ready to meet him?" The hour was too late to make needful preparation to meet him. In their emergency they turned to the five wise ones but the wisdom of one cannot supply the deficiency or the foolishness of others 11th and 12th, and 25th and 26th (v. 9); There is no Scripture to sup- 1914. port the teaching that one man's merit | The school board ordered all white is applicable to another except the schools to begin the session on Monmetit of the God pan Jesus as ap day, October 5th, and all colored plied to shrfal humanity.
